In Language for All Ages

We change as the world changes. We promise to learn and grow together, to become kinder and wiser people. Being ready to change and learn new things is an important part of being a Unitarian Universalist. We're always learning and trying our best, even if we're not always perfect.

Child Dedication

May 10, 2026

Ritual

Minister

In the Unitarian Universalist faith, each child is inherently worthy, holy and whole - just as they are. Each new life comes to us as a gift; making their demands, exacting our attention, and blessing us with their being.

Assembled

May we be worthy of the gift of new life.

Minister

Like in nature, our children need the care of community to grow and flourish. None of us are meant to go this life alone. Are you ready to dedicate yourselves to these children and to supporting their families?

Assembled

We are prepared. We dedicate our minds and hearts to these children.
We dedicate ourselves to ensuring that they are raised in the spirit of love.

Minister

Throughout life's journey, these children will encounter many joys and sorrows, some beyond our imagination. Not all of them will be easy to navigate. Will you strive to love and cherish them in times of struggle as well as gladness?

Assembled

Children, we will love and cherish you always.
We acknowledge the divine spark within each child.
May we be worthy guardians of the young lives in our fellowship.
We rededicate ourselves to build a community in which our children will grow old surrounded by beauty, embraced by love, and cradled in the arms of peace.

All:

May it be so. May we make it so.
